ANC Music Department Presents Concert

The ANC Music Department performed a varied concert April 19th and 21st in the Adams/Vines Recital Hall entitled "Let Me Be The Music." Over 75 musicians performed in this event that centered around a theme of the singer becoming the music. The singers sang of adoration, love and its power, fun, and the joy of music itself. The music of composers Gray, Ramsey, Huff, Shaw, Stroope and Mullholland were featured. The popular music of Adele, Three Dog Night, and the gospel music of Smallwood were also featured. The ANC Concert Singers, Community Chorus, ANC Opera Workshop, Women's Chorale, and ANC Chamber Singers all joined forces for this event directed by Dr. Keith Hearnberger, and accompanied by Dennis Hay.

Employee Achievements

Carol Mills, ANC's Academic Technology & Distance Education Coordinator, received an award at the annual South Central POISE Users Group Conference in Tulsa Oklahoma on April 8th. Educational Systems Products honors customers in recognition of an individual's years of dedicated service towards the success of the South Central POISE Users Group and the POISE product.

Randy Thomas, President, and Tom Rudolph, Vice-President of ESP said, "We are pleased to say that this year, Carol Mills received this award at the 32nd Annual SCPUG conference in Tulsa, OK. She is an outstanding user of the JICS portal and eRacer system and has been very helpful to ESP and our customer base. Congratulations Carol!"

AECI Donates $1,500 to GRP

Dr. James Shemwell, President of Arkansas Northeastern College, thanks Jackie May, Operations and Management Coordinator of Associated Electric Coop, Inc. (Dell Power Plant), for the company's $1,500 donation to the Great River Promise Scholarship Fund. "AECI has been a long-time supporter of ANC and its students. We greatly appreciate their generosity and continued support," said Shemwell. The Great River Promise is a scholarship initiative through the ANC Foundation that offers a college education at ANC to all Mississippi County public high school graduates who meet the criteria. It promotes attendance, hard work, and avoidance of alcohol and drugs. For more information about the Great River Promise or the ANC Foundation, contact Rachel Gifford at 870-838-2902.

ANC Hosts Spring Job Fair

The eighth annual ANC Spring Job Fair was attended by an estimated 600 people seeking employment. This year was a "sell out" for exhibitors with 56 companies and organizations participating. Health care providers comprised about 36% of the exhibitors. St.Jude, The Med, GRMC Blytheville/Osceola, NEA Baptist and St. Bernards were some of the larger companies attending. This year 20% of the exhibitors were new to the Job Fair. Feedback from both exhibitors and attendees was very positive and offered good suggestions for improving next year's Job Fair. Thanks to the Career Pathways staff for their help and support.
