Osceola's Municipal Golf Course was the site of the Arkansas Northeastern College Foundation's third annual Great River Promise Scholarship Golf Tournament. The event was held on Wednesday, September 25, 2013, with several four-person teams participating. Major sponsors for the event were: American Greetings, DENSO, Gibson Oil, Harshman Rentals, John Correnti, Plum Point Energy Station, Dr. Reggie Cullom, Senator David Burnett, and SouthBank.

With beautiful weather, golfers enjoyed a nice day of golf while supporting a worthwhile cause. All proceeds from the tournament will be used to help fund the GRP scholarship at ANC.

First place winners in the Championship Flight were: Terry Carr, Blake Carr and Scott Gifford all of Manila and Terry Brewer of Monette. (Center Photo)

Riverlawn Country Club provided a hamburger buffet for players following the tournament. "We had a beautiful day and a whole lot of fun," said Rachel Gifford, ANC Foundation Executive Director. "We appreciate so much the City of Osceola allowing us to use the course for this event. Everyone was so nice and helpful both at the course and the country club."

Gifford also expressed thanks to the many t-box sponsors for the event, the Osceola/South Mississippi County Chamber of Commerce for their support, and the tournament's major sponsors for their generous contributions.

ANC Concert Singers attend SICC

September 22-24, selected members of the ANC Concert Singers participated in the Southern Invitational Choral Conference at the University of Southern Mississippi.

The annual invitation only conference culminated in concert of advanced college choral repertoire with a massed choir. Over 20 two-year colleges were invited to participate, ANC being the only institution from Arkansas. The students worked diligently for 2 days on advanced choral repertoire and presented a public concert with orchestral accompaniment on September 24.

The selected singers were Rosaline Bailey, Ally Porter, Kalesha Johnson, Ty Mitchell, Zack Bowman, Zack Chipman, Bryan Roberts, Aaron Bloom, Quinton Adams, Lawless Kennedy, and Joey Courtright. Dr. Keith Hearnberger accompanied the singers to this conference and participated in professor sessions that were geared toward the retention and completion rates of choral students in their college careers.
