

CAMPUS RESOURCES

ANC resources are designed to make college easier for you. Taking advantage of these resources doesn't mean that you're failing at college. It means that you know how to take advantage of the free resources.

Advising Center

Melissa Arledge, 870-762-3194

Academic advisors for Allied Technologies, Arts and Sciences, and Allied Health • Tutoring • Testing Center

Career Pathways

Isabella Campbell, 870-780-1256

Helps Arkansas custodial parents, non-custodial parents, and caretakers with children under 21 • Tuition • Textbooks • Testing fees • WIFI • Laptops • Gas vouchers • Scrubs, welding supplies, boots, uniforms, etc.

Community Relations

Willie Williams, (870) 762-3178

Free transportation to and from school • Food pantry • Career clothing closet • Mentoring • Workforce training

Disability Services

Damon Richardson, 870-762-3180

Provides reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities such as priority seating, interpreters, physical or verbal assistance, video magnifier, braille materials, etc.

EOC Program – TRIO

Jaime Gray, 870-838-2961

Assistance for adults 19 and older • Help with financial aid applications • Help enrolling in college, specialized schools or GED programs

Financial Aid

870-762-3103

Guidance with information concerning ANC financial aid, including grants, scholarships, and veteran services

Internship/Career Services

Megan Buchanan, 870-762-3197
Michael Smith, 870-780-1270

Assists students with internship opportunities • Maintains a list of area career opportunities

Single Parent Scholarship

Denese Bogard, 870-762-3185

Scholarship for single parents living in Mississippi County, Arkansas • Must be a legal resident of the U.S. and have earned a high school diploma

SSS – TRIO

Lisa McGhee, 870-762-3186

Student Support Services provides free services to first generation students who meet the income guidelines • Available services include tutoring, campus visits, cultural activities • Check out program includes laptops, surface tablets, graphing and scientific calculators, and more.